OF YOUTH
PERFORMANCE

*Music is well said to be the speech of angels;
In fact, nothing among the utterances allowed to man is felt to be so divine. It brings us near to the infinite.

Introducing Our Adjudicators

Nancy Nowosad - Piano

Nancy Nowosad received her musical training in Saskatchewan, and holds an Associateship Diploma in Piano Performance from the Royal Conservatory of Music and a Bachelor of Music in Piano Performance from the University of Regina. Her teachers have included Dorothy Bee and Dr. Lyell Gustin. She also studied both saxophone and flute, and has been involved in a wide variety of bands and ensembles as a performer, clinician, and conductor.

Nancy has had a diverse musical career while living in various Canadian centres as well as in Germany and England, including private teaching, performing as a soloist and collaborative pianist, playing in and/or conducting pit orchestras, and church organist and choir director positions. Since moving to Winnipeg in 1991, she has been an active teacher of piano, saxophone and theory, as well as a workshop/masterclass clinician, an adjudicator for music festivals and competitions in Canada, and an examiner for the Royal Conservatory of Music in Canada and the US, working both remotely and in person. After many years of maintaining a regular church organist position and working as an accompanist for numerous soloists and choirs, she has moved to freelance work in both. She also continues to play keyboard and provide music leadership in a 15 piece 'big band'.

Nancy has been the main facilitator of Associated Manitoba Arts Festivals' Adjudicator Training for many years, sharing her knowledge and experience with numerous participants who have become active and well respected adjudicators. She also serves as a Presiding Examiner for RCM's Adjudicator Certification Program, and provides mentorship to new teachers, adjudicators and examiners. She is a member of the Manitoba Registered Music Teachers' Association where she has held various Executive positions, as well as a member of the Canadian Music Festival Adjudicators' Association.

Mark Ward - Band

Wind bands have been a part of Mark Ward's life since his high school band days in Montreal and included memberships in the Black Watch Association Band and the Lakeshore Concert Band. He started his post secondary studies at the University of Lethbridge, completed bachelor's degrees at the University of Lethbridge and Western University, and a Masters in Music at the University of Victoria.

Mark's music background spans over 42 years having spent his career as a band teacher in Abbotsford, BC and in Lethbridge and Medicine Hat. He has served on the board of directors of the British Columbia Band Association and the Alberta Band Association including a term as president. He was recognized by the ABA with an Honorary Lifetime Member Award. Mark is also a member of Phi Beta Mu, an international honorary organization of band directors.

Mark is the brass instructor at the Medicine Hat College Conservatory and conducts the Andante Community Band in Medicine Hat and the Gold Band in Lethbridge. Last year he and three colleagues created Medicine Hat Sings, a new 75 voice community choir. He believes that community and school music are a critical part of Canadian heritage and culture.

Alyssa Woolhether - Vocal

Based in Regina, Saskatchewan, soprano Alyssa Woolhether has established a dynamic and multifaceted career as a voice teacher, adjudicator, workshop facilitator, choir director, and performer. She maintains a thriving private studio at the University of Regina's Conservatory of Performing Arts and serves as Artistic Director of the Sisters in Song Women's Choir of Regina. Alyssa holds a Master of Music in Performance and Literature from Western University and a Bachelor of Music in Performance from the University of Regina. She is certified in Levels I, II, and III of Somatic Voicework™ – The LoVetri Method, and her work is grounded in functional voice training, vocal empowerment, and the practical application of these techniques across musical styles. Recognized for her expressive lyric voice, Alyssa has performed with arts organizations across Ontario and has trained at respected programs in Canada and Europe. With over 20 years of stage experience, she is known for her musical storytelling, thoughtful interpretation, and strong connection to text. Beyond classical music, Alyssa is also the bandleader and songwriter for Lyssa & the Try-Tones, a soul/pop band that has earned multiple SaskMusic Award nominations, released three EPs, and performed at notable festivals throughout Saskatchewan. At the heart of her work is a belief that cultivating trust in one's instrument builds confidence, unlocks creativity, and fosters a deeper connection between voice, body, and self.

SMFA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

FINDING OUR PLACE

2026 brings a lot of change for our family, as we have relocated to Saskatoon from North Battleford. The new routines, people and surroundings are prompting me to consider how we will fit in and contribute to the community.

Likewise, the SMFA board and staff continue to consider how to provide all musicians and spoken word artists comfortable and inspiring places to share their creativity - where each person feels valued and welcomed.

Finding our place in a community is central to the human experience and provides benefits to mental and physical well-being. I hope that every volunteer, participant, teacher and adjudicator find that they are part of something that brings satisfaction and joy, and that the relationships they build are life-giving.

I am honoured to work as president of the SMFA. Board members and staff inspire me with their energy and ideas. At festivals, volunteers amaze me with their commitment, adjudicators give me new strategies, and performers bring me joy!

As each of us finds a place in the vibrant Saskatchewan festival movement, we will do our part to realize the hope of our mentor, Mossie Hancock: "Music for One, Music for All".

FUNDS FOR FESTIVAL

The Drop & Go feature at SARCAN allows customers to drop off beverage containers for recycling without waiting in line.

SARCAN staff will count your beverage containers and you can choose to donate your order to the Saskatchewan Music Festival Association (SMFA).

Using the key phrase “Funds for Festival” friends and family from across the province can support festival by simply entering the key phrase when using SARCAN Drop and Go.

Drop off your containers, tag your bags, and go -- it's that simple!

SARCAN Drop & Go is the easiest way to recycle to get your beverage container deposit refund and payments are received directly to the SMFA PayPal account. These donations support SMFA programs and services. Thank you for your support!

BARBER MOTORS Salutes

Melanie Hiske

Melanie Hiske was a consummate artist in every sense of the word. She excelled in many mediums and strands of the arts, including acting, singing, visual arts, music, and photography. Melanie grew up in Lampman, Saskatchewan and was introduced to music at an early age. She and her siblings, Andy and Janice, were active in the band program at Lampman School, where Melanie played flute. All three siblings competed yearly in the Estevan Music Festival in a variety of classes, showing well and winning awards.

Melanie had a strong desire to attend acting school and become a performer. She and her family investigated a few schools but opportunities were very few in Saskatchewan at that time. Instead, she moved to Saskatoon to go to hair school and became a Cosmetologist, later receiving her Red Seal Journey Person status. After moving back to Lampman to open her own salon, Melanie attended an open call for actors for the Lampman Community Theatre. She was cast as the female lead role, and it was in this role that she met her love interest, played by Aaron Hiske. The two worked together closely and were soon after married in real life. Both Melanie and Aaron participated in the Lampman Community Theatre for a number of years before moving to Estevan.

Melanie ensured their children, Morgan and Max, were involved in the arts from a very early age. Both children were enrolled in Music for Young Children and later started piano lessons, with Melanie attending week after week for many years enjoying the time making music with family. In between running her children to venues for their own music festival entries for piano, speech arts, choir, and band, Melanie supported the Estevan Music Festival as convenor, adjudicator's helper and other volunteer activities, including emcee at the yearly awards festival on many occasions. She also donated time at a local elementary school to assist students with speech arts entries for the music festival.

While in Estevan, Melanie thrived in her own art endeavours. She was an avid scrapbooker and became interested in photography and entered a number of pieces in local fairs and shows. She also began her journey into embroidery and began hosting classes at the local library and selling several pieces. She was also briefly involved with the Estevan Arts Council.

In the fall of 2017 Melanie and her family moved to Weyburn, and it did not take long for her to become involved in the Weyburn Festival. Melanie was a member of the board and helped the festival by volunteering for a variety of positions needed to run the festival. She helped coach several speech arts and vocal entries as well.

While in Weyburn, Melanie participated in the Weyburn Arts Council as an associate member, supporting various events and artist showcases. She also received much recognition for her work in embroidery, and in 2021, Melanie won 2nd place for her embroidery, "Plant Lady" at the James Weir People's Choice Awards, and was later able to display several of her embroidery pieces at the Weyburn Credit Union Art Gallery. Melanie also hosted several embroidery instruction programs at the library and assisted the Weyburn Comprehensive School PAA classes with sewing and embroidery work.

In 2022, Melanie opened Rootbound Plant Shop and Boutique. Here, she made a point to showcase local artists' work, including pottery, jewelry, paintings, photography, and macrame. Melanie was very happy to provide support to the local artisans and future artists of the Weyburn Area.
